Titans: The Missing by Kate O' Hearn
9781534417083 / Simon & Schuster / PB / R225

With the weakened Titan prisoners hidden on Earth, Astraea, Zephyr, and their team head to Nesso's jungle world to seek help in the struggle against the Mimics. But nothing goes to plan. The moment they arrive, they encounter a world filled with dangers they never imagined possible — from massive, hungry dinosaurs to a blisteringly hot sun. Soon Zephyr and Astraea are seriously wounded. Without ambrosia or nectar to heal them, the group realizes they are in serious trouble. But where can they go for help? With Zephyr's life slipping away, Jake and Tryn use their new flying skateboards to try to make it to Xanadu where they hope to find ambrosia for Zephyr and enlist help to join the fight against the Mimics.

Hardy Boys Adventures 23: by Franklin W. Dixon
9781534478077 / Simon & Schuster / PB / R175

The Hardys and some of their friends hop aboard an old train that's been restored and turned into a murder mystery experience. A cast of actors will perform an immersive theatrical production while passengers dine in style, assume roles in the game, and ultimately try their hand at solving the case. This should be a cakewalk for Joe and Frank! The production is a mess. The actors are lousy, fumbling their lines and spelling out obvious clues. At least the food is pretty good. But just as the Hardy Boys are trying to make the most of a disappointing situation, one of the cast members goes missing. At first, the audience thinks that the show is taking a turn for the better, but it quickly becomes clear that this is not part of the act. For the Hardys, the mystery has gone from good fun to deadly serious.

How to Build a Story... Or, the Big What If by Frances O'Roark Dowell

Danny Chung does not do Maths by Maisie Chan
9781800780019 / Hot Key / PB / R170

Eleven-year-old Danny Chung loves drawing more than anything — certainly more than maths, which, according to his dad and everyone else, is what he is 'supposed' to be good at. He also loves having his own room where he can draw in peace, so his life is turned upside down when a surprise that he's been promised turns out to be his little, wrinkly, ex-maths-champion grandmother from China. What's worse, Nai Nai has to share his room, AND she takes the top bunk! Nai Nai can't speak a word of English, which doesn't make things easy for Danny when he is charged with looking after her during his school holidays. Babysitting Nai Nai is NOT what he wants to be doing! Before long though it becomes clear to Danny that there is more to Nai Nai than meets the eye, and that they have more in common than he thought possible.

Enola Holmes 2: The Case of the Left-Handed Lady by Nancy Springer
9781471410765 / Hot Key / PB / R190

We Are Inevitable by Gayle Forman
9781471173776 / Simon & Schuster / PB / R205

So far, the inevitable hasn't worked out so well for Aaron Stein. While his friends have gone to college and moved on with their lives, Aaron's been left behind in the Cascade Mountains of Washington State, running a failing bookshop with his dad, Ira. What he needs is a lucky break, the good kind of inevitable. And then he meets Hannah. Incredible Hannah — magical, musical, brave and clever. Could she be the answer? And could they — their relationship, their meeting — possibly be the inevitable Aaron's been waiting for?

The Lucky List by Rachael Lippincott
9781398502604 / Simon & Schuster / PB / R205

Emily and her mum were always lucky. But Emily's mum's luck ran out three years ago when she succumbed to cancer, and nothing has felt right since. Now, the summer before her senior year, things are worse than ever — Emily has wrecked things with her boyfriend, Matt, and her dad is selling the house she grew up in and giving her mum's belongings away. The only person she has to talk to is Blake, a girl she barely knows since she and her dad moved back to town five seconds ago. But that's when Emily finds the list — her mum's senior year summer bucket list — buried in the back of her closet. When Blake suggests that Emily take it on as a challenge, the two set off on a journey to tick each box and help Emily face her fears over losing her connection to her mum. As she starts to feel closer to her mother, so too does Emily's bond with Blake deepen into something she wasn't expecting. And suddenly Emily must face another fear: accepting the secret part of herself she never got a chance to share with the person who knew her best.

The Theft of Sunlight by Intisar Khanani

And they may just hold the answers Cass has been searching for.

Chosen Ones by Veronica Roth
9781529330267 / Hodder / PB / R215

When Sloane Andrews and her friends defeated the Dark One, it nearly cost them everything. Ten years later, they are still struggling to put the battle behind them and reclaim their lives. After all, the rest of the world has moved on, so why can't they? Of the five, Sloane has had the hardest time adjusting. Everyone else blames the PTSD — and her huge attitude problem — but really, she's hiding secrets from them... secrets that keep her tied to the past and alienate her from the only four people in the world who understand her. On the tenth anniversary of the Dark One's defeat, something unthinkable happens: one of the Chosen Ones dies. When the others gather for the funeral, they discover the Dark One's ultimate goal was much bigger than they, the government, or even prophecy could have foretold — bigger than the world itself.

An Emotion of Great Delight by Tahereh Mafi
9781405298261 / Egmont/ PB / R205

It's 2003, several months since the US officially declared war on Iraq, and the political world has evolved. Shadi, who wears hijab, keeps her head down. Hate crimes are spiking. Undercover FBI agents are infiltrating mosques and interrogating members of the congregation, and the local Muslim community is fracturing. Shadi hears the fights after services, the arguments between families about what it means to be Muslim, about what they should be doing and saying as a community, but she does not engage. She's too busy drowning in her own troubles to find the time to deal with bigots. Shadi is named for joy, but she's haunted by sorrow. Her brother is dead, her father is dying, her mother is falling apart, and her best friend has mysteriously dropped out of her life. And then there's matter of her heart. It's broken. Shadi has tried to navigate the remains of her quickly-shattering world by soldiering through, saying nothing, until finally, one day, everything changes. She explodes.
